Translation of Rubkari
o 191 dated the 3rd August 894 from the Dy Commissioner
f Mysore District

In connection ith the attempt made by the Jain Community to rect new Jain Bastees and consecrate idols therein at Kasba Mandaya and at the village of Saragoor in the Taluq of Heggadavankote, the two proceedings quoted in the margin are herewith forwarded for perusal and orders. If these people consi new Bastees, they will set up an opposition when other Hindu-images of ancient temples are taken out in procession Besides there will arise an unnecessary clash and consequent disturbances between the sectarians especially if the Jains contrary to custom take out their idols as fancy may dictate to them in front of Hindu Temples. The villagers remonstrate against giving permission either to construct either new Bastees or to locate new idols therein on the ground that public peace will be disturbed.

The Jains of Bellur
in Nelamangala Taluq led out their idol in procession during Dasra contrary to mamool and obstructed other Vishnu deities being taken out in procession.
They have on this account fallen out with the people of the village and their contention has ~~b~~ been the cause of unnecessary correspondence and criminal cases
during these three years.
The matter is therefore placed before the Govt
for their consideration and orders.

AND—

Petition No 490, dated 8th January 1896, from one Dasasetti of Yedatore, praying for the grant of 50 acres of wet land under Allalkatte channel at a fixed upset price of Rs 50 per acre for the maintenance of a chattram and a temple of Siddaganapati newly constructed by him at Yedatore, as has been granted to the Srikanteswaraswami temple at Nanjangud on the application of Amildar Srikantaiya.

No. 1033, DATED, BANGALORE, 26TH MARCH 1896.

ORDER THEREON.—The petitioners will be informed that waste lands cannot be granted for new temples built by private individuals, and that the existing Rules for the grant of waste lands for the endowment of private chattrams are sufficiently liberal.

2. The grant of a limited extent of waste lands likely to be converted into wet, without auction and for a moderate valuation, to the Muzrai temple at Nanjangud in recognition of the special claims of that temple cannot be regarded by the petitioners as any precedent for similar concessions to small temples built by them.

Rubkari No. 191, dated 3rd August 1894, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, regarding the construction of a Jain Basti at Sargoor in Heggadadevan-Kote Taluk.

And:

Records of further enquiry held by the Muzrai Superintendent on the 5th March 1897

——— .. ———

No. 881. En V. Papers.
Dated 18-1-98.

Order thereon:—

The circumstances of the case are as follow:—

On the 25th April one Brahmiah, a Jain resident of Sargoor, tioned the Amildar, praying for permission to build a Basti on a piece of land belonging to him in the Jain quarters of the village. On the local residents of the other communities executing a Mahazar, stating that they had no objection whatever to the construction of a Basti, the permission sought for was granted, and the construction completed. But now certain non-Jain residents of the village object to the consecration of the idol in the basti, on the ground that its Mahadwara (main entrance) faces one of the streets of the village through which the processions of Sri Narasimha Swami temple pass. The Jains however state that they have no objection whatever to the passage of the temple processions in front of the Basti, as heretofore.

2. With reference to the above, the Government observe that, at the time Brahmiah started work, the members of the other communities resident in the village raised no objections whatever, but on the other hand gave a written mahazar to the effect that they had no objection to the construction of the Basti. Now that the building has been with the previous permissi of the Deputy Commissioner granted on the strength of the mahazar the obje, now raised to the of the dol in the Basti is unreasonable and must be rejected. The Jains of course, should be bound by a formal muchilika not to object to temple and other processions, passing with music in front of the Basti.

ABSTRACT

The petitioners state as follows — That in 1894 the Jain sect of the above mentioned village attempted to consecrate their god in a temple built by them, quite against mamool and religious custom of the surrounding Hindu inhabitants. That on the complaint of the petitioners on 5-1-94 to the Dy Commr, of the doing of the Jain sect, he ordered that the Jain sect should not consecrate their god and mamool & the religious custom of the surrounding Hindu inhabitants of the village. That during the last year the muzeroy secretary inspected the temple in question when the petitioners represented that the temple was a new one, & was not in existence befor That lately the muzeroy secretary issued orders to the Amildar to permit the jain sect to consecrate their God in the said temple. That accordingly the Amildar has issued orders to the effect that those who ~~obstruct~~ prevent the jains in consecrating their god would be punished. That the Jains are going to consecrate their God on the 22nd inst. That by the ~~by~~ order of the Amildar there will be ~~public~~ disturbance of the public peace. The petitioners therefore pray that the jains may not be allowed to consecrate their god as it ~~was~~ is against mamool & against the religious custom of the Hindus & thus prevent the disturbance of the public

My dear Mr Srinivasa Iyengar,

The temple dispute is an old story. The sanction for building was given I believe, by Mr T Ananda Rao when Deputy Commissioner. The Samprokshane had not been made in my time. The dispute subsequently went before the Muzrai Secretary whom I remember saying that a compromise had been effected He will give you the latest information

The Iyengars are noisy but not dangerous unless the Uppars and Gowdas should have made common cause with them. I shall write at once to Deputy Commissioner, Mysore The place is not Sargur in Nanjangud, but in Heggadadevan-Kote, but the Telegraph Station is probably Nanjangud, as it is nearer than Mysore across country If my surmise is not correct the information given above is all wrong

Your D.O regarding the dispute between the Jains and the Brahmins about the Jain Basti at Sargoor which is in Heggadadevankote Taluk — not in Nanjangud as stated in the Telegram enclosed

A dispute about the ~~[illegible]~~ construction came up before Government in the

and was finally disposed of by Govt Pro: No 881 d/

This Pro: as also the remarks of the Dewan (in original) and other connected papers are herewith
sent for perusal
and obliging return.

From the telegram
I see that the chief complaint of the Brahmins at present is that the Jains

with the help of the Taluk Amildar are attempting to take out their idol in procession outside the Basti premises.
This is an action not authorized by the Govt order; on the other hand from the enclosed Kanarese
statement of [illegible] [illegible] Bramhia, the person who has consecrated the Basti,
it will be observed that the Jains had not, at any time, been taking their idol out in pro-

now attempt to do it,
it will certainly be innovation and

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVT. OF MYSORE,
GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMEN

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge your official Memorandum No. Pet/1440 dated 30th May 1898 forwarding a petition from Rangaiengar and other agents of Lakshminarasimhaswami temple at Sargur in the Heggadadevankote Taluk praying that the Jains of their village may not be permitted to Con-

Consecrate their idol in the temple by built by them.

Before receipt of this petition, I had heard of the alarming telegram to the Resident and asked the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore to take proper precautions for maintaining order and to favor me with a full report of the case,

No: 519 of 3-6-98. and I beg to submit copy^x of the report received from him for information of Government. It will be seen therefrom that the question of granting license for Consecration of the Jain temple is still pending before the Deputy Commissioner that the Amildar had made the necessary Police arrangements and proceeded to the spot himself and that there had been no disturbance.

Rangaiengar, the writer of the petition, is said to be the archak of Narasimhaswamy's temple and brother of Ramaiengar who wired to the Resident an exaggerated and alarming version of the Case.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Memo

in re the telegram sent to the Resident by one S. Ramaiengar of Santhe Surgur.

The Jains of Surgur, Heggadadevankote Taluk, made arrangements and began building a temple in the village in the year 1891-92. The villagers at first executed a muchaliké to the effect that they had no objection to the building of the temple in question. They then raised objections. The Muzarai Superintendent thereupon visited the spot, made enquiries, and came to the conclusion, the Taluk report says, that the objection of the villagers wh first a Consenting party, Could not be accepted.

As per orders of the District Muzarai Department the Amildar obtained a muchaliké from the Jains who Consented to the passing of the processions of Narasimha-swami and other Hindu Gods with music, drum and other paraphernalia in front of their temple.

On the 7th May last, the founder of the temple Jain Jayamma of Saligram applied for a license to put the idol in the temple and Carry on the processions with music &ca. Not receiving any orders, on the 22d idem - the day fixed for the - Ceremonies - Jayamma renewed his applicaplication for license adding that everything was ready, that Aganikás and 2 or 300 people had come. The Amildar submitted both the applications to the District Magistrate who was pleased to direct not to grant license pending the issue of further orders.

The Collection of the Jain people having been reported to the Amildar by the Sirga Duffedar, the former made at once the needful Police arrangements and went to the spot himself.

The Amildar reports that no disturbance has taken place, that every precaution has been taken to maintain tranquillity, that Rangiengar archak of Narasimha-swami temple and his brother Rama-

Ramaiengar - the sender of the telegram - and a few others are at the bottom of these unfounded and alarming news.

The matter is under the Consideration of the District Magistrate.

On the 23rd ultimo, the same Rama-Iyengar's brother, archak Rangaiengar, made a Complaint to the Srigur Police wherein among other things he made mention that messages would be sent to the Resident, Her Highness the Maharani Regent, the Deputy Commissioner.
